Sports Day - Monday, Oct. 27, 2008

Point Lobos Fun Hike and Scenic Tour

Point Lobos is called “the greatest meeting of land and sea.” Explore its majesty and mystery with event chairman and guide, Dr. Andrew Knorr, who shares his favorite vantage points while offering photography and wildlife viewing tips to insure that you capture an unforgettable experience. Trace the footsteps of famous photographer Ansel Adams, as you explore oceanfront trails with breathtaking vistas, moss-covered Cypress groves, meadows, tide pools, sea otters and a wide variety of beautiful songbirds. This easy hike is suitable for children and on the way back we plan to visit Pebble Beach, stop for a picnic lunch, and experience some of the most breathtaking sights on earth! Fee includes sports breakfast at hotel, transportation from Portola Hotel, lunch, and bottled water. Wear sturdy shoes and bring your sun block, camera, perhaps binoculars and sense of adventure for a memorable day. Fee: $45. Children under 12, free. Bus departs 9:00 AM and returns approx. 2:00 PM.

Chairman: Andrew Knorr, MD

Golf Tournament

This year's tournament will be held at the Bayonet / Blackhorse Golf Course, a PGA qualifying championship golf course known for its magnificently manicured, long fairways with breathtaking vistas overlooking The National Marine Sanctuary of Monterey Bay on Black Horse. We will have a shotgun start at 8:00am. Fee includes sports breakfast at hotel, transportation, green fees, cart, prizes, and awards luncheon. Men's and women's golf.

Chairman: Robert Panvini, M.D.

Kayak Adventure

Located off the spectacular 17th green, Stillwater Cove has earned its name from the beautiful calmness that most often characterizes its waters. The views from the water are incredible and include not only world famous The Lodge at Pebble Beach and Pebble Beach Golf Links, but Point Lobos and Carmel beach as well.

And wildlife? An abundance of seals, sea otters and numerous marine bird species make their home in this protected area, and seeing them is a special treat! Afterward we will meet with the hikers at a nearby picnic area for a scenic lunch. Fee includes sports breakfast, transportation from Portola Hotel, lunch, and bottled water and all gear included except booties. Bring your sun block, camera and sense of adventure for a memorable day. Fee: $65. Bus departs 9:00 AM and returns approx. 2:00 PM.

Chairman: Joseph Franks, MD
