

Western Section American Urological Association (WSAUA) Disclosure Statement

In order to ensure balance, independence, objectivity, and scientific rigor in all WSAUA educational and governance activities, individuals participating in such activities are expected to disclose their private financial or institutional interests related to health care or to WSAUA activities, business transactions, presentations or publications. WSAUA does not view the existence of these interests or commitments as necessarily implying bias or decreasing the value of participation in organization activities. The intent of disclosure is to allow others to make an informed decision about the existence and impact of potential conflicts – including necessity for refusal or disqualification under extraordinary circumstances.

Any member of the WSAUA who refuses to complete a disclosure history will be prohibited from participation in a WSAUA Committee, Council, Educational Course, or Publication. WSAUA members shall be encouraged to report, in confidence, apparent violations of the disclosure policy by others. Sanctions shall be applied, following appropriate investigation, by recommendation of the WSAUA Judicial & Ethics Council to the WSAUA Board of Directors. Criticism is reserved for those who a) subordinate the interests of the Association to their private interests, b) fail to make appropriate disclosure of their competing interests, or c) in some circumstances, fail to avoid unnecessary and unjustified appearance of conflict of interest. Failure to comply with the disclosure policy shall be considered cause for sanctions, which may include removal of a WSAUA member from office or appointment, recusal from review of abstracts or material regarding which a conflict exists, exclusion from participation in the affected WSAUA activity, or authorship of submitted materials, and where egregious, expulsion from WSAUA or other sanctions prescribed by Article X of the WSAUA Bylaws.

Please check here if, based on the criterion listed above, you have no disclosures to report.
